It is about time for Groom to serve them over, but "Buck" Becker may draw the lucky number and do the honors. Buck has not been carded to do his share toward the uplifting of our home hopes for some time, and is sure to receive the hearty support of his many well-wishers should he be selected.

Morgan's injury sustained in Saturday's game is still bothering the little National recruit, and he is not expected to be able to play for several days. It was while sliding into first that Ray received the injury to his heel, which, while nothing serious, will prevent him from occupying the hot corner and displaying that speed which has characterized his work.

It is known that many of the members of the team are strong for George McBride as next pilot of the Nationals, and whether the opinion of the players and players of both teams.
